The point was upon a ridge leading into th right restors, and was situated just above the main fort. During the night the enemy could be heard busily at work, but what at it was impossible to tell, as the thickest woods en compasing the union troops on every side rendered the view in any direction almost impossible. At daylight a large body of the enouny suddenly appeared on the extreme right wing of Col. Oglesby's command, and gened a terrible fire with cannon from their lonts, playing at the same time on our position from guns placed in position durin, the night previous

The comp of the 20th and 31st Illinois was most exposed, and the whole brigade was at as a formed into line, as follows: The 18th Hinners held the extreme right, the 8th H. next, the 30th Hi, next, then the 20th Hilmois supporting the right of Capt. Schwarzz's but tery, the 31st Illinois defending the artiflery n the left.

From the firing of the first gun till 9 o'clock the battle raged unremittingly, and with lear-ful loss on both sides. Again and again our Butteries - Schwartz's, Dresser's, Taylor's, troops drove the enemy back, but they were ing to the extended lines of the army, and also the position on the extreme to fight, unassisted.
